Description of the Bodies Found.

From files of The San Francisco Bulletin to the 17th ult., we extract the following additional details of the recent terrible disaster on the Pacific coast:

The return of the Del Norte from the scene of the wreck of the Brother Jonathan without bringing further tidings of her ill-fated passengers, has extinguished the last remaining hope that the catastrophe would prove less terrible than first reported. All of her passengers and erew, save the small boat-load that came ashore on the afternoon of the necident, have doubles found a watery grave, and there appears to be little prove extent to the public, we subjoin the sat affair is of absorbing interest to the public, we subjoin the statement of Quartermas ier Yates, as follows:

LETTER FROM EUREKA.

TEURSKA Binaboldt County, Aug. 10, 1865.

We started from Bureka on the morning of August 8, a party of four persons and a guide, to patied the beach between Eureka and Gold Binff. We arrived at Arcata, should ly miles distinut, in time to get dimer and feed our animals, and then we started on our fourney toward the beach, which was about five miles on a trail. Here we patholed the beach for 12 miles, and the westruck the trail for Trinidad, which is about three miles long and very hard traveling, especially for a person who is not used to the saddle. We nirrived at Trinidad about 7 o'clock, p. m., and stopped for the night.

Trimidad about 7 octors, p. m., and repper to the might.

On our way up we found the beach literally strewed with mearly every part of the wrecked ship from her keel up, and trunax vegetable boxes, a.c. We found a mail-bag, marked "Postmaster, Victoria, filled with female bag, which I brought along with me.

MANHOOD.

In the young and rising generation, the vegetative powers of life are strong, but in a few years how often the pallid has, the lack-inster eye and emaclated form, and the impossibility of application to mental effort, show its baneful influence. It soon becomes evident to the observer that some depressing influence is checking the development of the body. Co sumption is talked of, and perhaps the youth is removed fro school and sent into the country. This is one of the worst movements. Removed from ordinary diversions of the ere-changing scenes of the city, the powers of the body, too much enfeebled to give zest to healthful and rural exercise, the are turned inward upon themselves. If the patient be a female, the approach of the menses is gooked for with anxiety, as the first symptom in which Nature is to show her saving power in diffusing the circulation, and visiting the cheek with the bloom of health. Alas! increase of appetite has grown by what it fed on, and the energies of the system are prostrated, and the whole economy is de-ranged. The beautiful and wonderful period in which body and mind undergo so fascinating a change from child to woman, is looked for in vain; the parent's heart beeds in anxiety, and fancies the grave but waiting for its victim. Who can say that these excesses are not frequently followed by those direful diseases, Insanity and Consumption? The records of the Insane Asplans, and the melancholy deatheby Consumption, bear ample witness to the trath of these amertions. In Lunatic Asylums the most melancholy exhibition appears.
